By-Lo
Borated Violet
Talcum Powder
This is an exquisitely fine Toilet Talcum which we now handle.
We have never seen its equal in velvety smooth-
ness and rare
violet odor.
It is so fine
that when rubbed on the skin it disappears at once, leaving the skin soft and fair.
We recommend By-Lo above all other Toilet Talcum Powders, because it is vastly superior and contains double quantity. Exquisitely artistic packages. Price 25c.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The Seniors are preparing their class annual. This means work, but if all do their part we hope to make it as light as possible.

Examination this Friday. This is the last for the 11th grade, because it is necessary that Professor Watson have time to prepare his report to be sent to Lincoln.

The 10th grade are busy forcing the trees into bloom. Switches are brought to school daily by them for Miss Nelson's use. We are surprised at the Juniors' bravery.

Prof. Watson went down to Ainsworth last Saturday and talked in behalf of the Junior Normal.
He is to go to Crookston next Saturday for the same purpose.

The last Senior program is to be given April 20th in Church's hall.
Thus far, these programs have been well attended and we find they have been very beneficial to us.

panied her mother.

A case of nostalgia: "Oh!" exclaimed an exile from the green fields of Missouri to a young lady preparing to visit Kansas, "do go over into Missouri and kiss Missouri for me." As I recall "The orchards, the meadows, the deep tangled wildwood," I appreciate the sentiment.

The blackbirds, meadow larks and killdees came in numbers the last week in March; the yellowhammer the first week in April.
The Phoebe birds have been here skirting the warm waves all winter.

The V. H. S. reporters evidently have the identity of the two writers from eastern Cherry county confused. It is up to the other member of the menagerie to defend his humor and father his jokes on the mother-in-law and the mule. Eagle will endeavor to label any humor that creeps into these items, for the benefit of those who have to be showed where the laugh comes in. Anyway give us a joke occasionally, whether it is cracked "in a pinch" or on a flatiron with a hammer.
(Smile here.) EAGLE.

of an earlier spring. The highest temperature was 78° on the 6th,
